THE TIME IS NOW

TRIBESMAN 1990

Reply with passion to the quests of the mind, 'ere youth is severed and left far behind.

Until you succeed, work in ceaseless pace, for plunging to death are sands in time's vase.

Follow your summons, but question not how; in your journey find the time is now.

Dr. John G. McCall

1990 Tribesman Dedication

BELOW: "And how would you like your burger?" Dr. McCall does the honors at a backyard cookout with friends

> "I love her dearly, and I'd rather be with her than anyone else in the world and you can quote me on that." Dr. McCall, concerning his wife Vicki.

Dr. McCall's advice to students: "Be the very best you can be in the will of God and by His power."

"But godliness actually is a means of great gain, when accompanied by contentment." (1 Timothy 6:6)

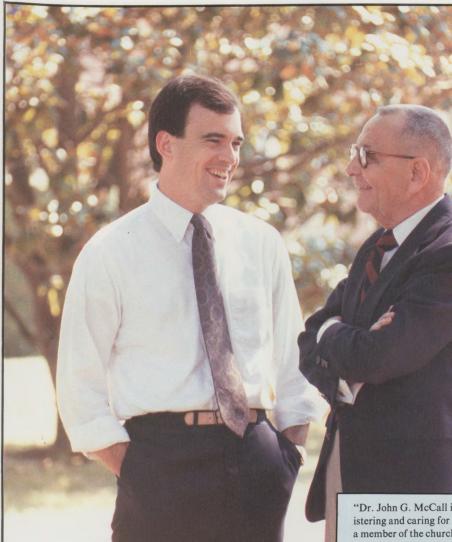

John G. McCall was born in Quitman, Georgia on July 13, 1917. He graduated from Stetson University in 1939 and went on to receive his Masters and Doctorate degrees from Southern Baptist Theological Seminary in Louisville, Kentucky. He then did post-graduate work at the University of Edinburg.

Throughout his life, Dr. McCall has held many denominational services. They include being a member of the Mississippi College Board of Trustees, a member of the Mississippi Baptist Convention Board and Executive Committee, as well as President of the Mississippi Baptist Convention, a member of the Radio and Television Commission of the Southern Baptist Convention and other various SBC committees. He has also served as Assistant Dean and Professor of New Testament at Boyce Bible School, a division of the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary in Louisville, Kentucky.

From 1943-1946, Dr. McCall served as Chaplain of the United States Army. He has also held pastorates in Florida, Kentucky, and North Carolina, and is presently the Pastor Emeritus at First Baptist Church of Vicksburg, where he served for thirty years.

Currently, Dr. McCall is Head of the Department of Religion and Philosophy at Mississippi College where he enjoys teaching students about the Bible. Aside from his dedication to the students here at Mississippi College, he enjoys spending time with his family and working in the yard. His favorite verse is John 3:16 (if he had to pick one, that is), and his favorite hymn is "Amazing Grace."

The epitome of a righteous man, Dr. McCall leads a rich and full life; he is content. "Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they shall be satisfied." (Matthew 5:6)

"Dr. McCall is the most sincere person I've ever met, and he has a true concern for everyone, especially his students."

— Jay Bullen

"As a pastor, a College trustee, a fellow employee, a family neighbor and a personal friend, Dr. John McCall has impressed me with his sincerity, his enthusiasm and his desire to let everyone around him know he truly cares. He is a great person."

- Norman H. Gough, Director of Public Relations

"Dr. McCall is an encourager to all; students, faculty, administration, and staff. His enthusiasm is contagious!"

— Phil McCarty

"Dr. McCall has one of the most contagious attitudes around. It is easy to see how the spirit of the Lord fills his heart. He genuinely cares for all students. He is a man of God."

- Charles Mullins

"Dr. McCall's enthusiasm for life and genuine love and concern for all his students are what makes him so special. His Christ-like life is a fine example for those of us who are privileged to know him."

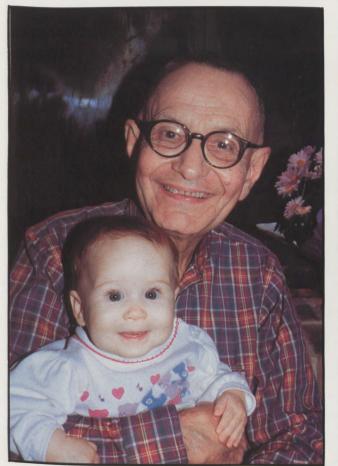

- Kathy Nichols

"In preparing these pages, I was astounded at the love and appreciation that others have for Dr. McCall. It is rare to find a person in any walk of life who is so admired and respected."

— Tonya Williams

"Dr. John G. McCall is THE role model of what ministering and caring for people is all about. Having been a member of the church he pastored in Vicksburg most of my life, and having worked with him in a variety of ways since coming to MC, I have seen nothing but the highest quality Christian life displayed by him in his service and love for others."

Freshman Orientation

"Your Time to Shine!"

This was the theme of Freshman Orientation 1989. Led by Student Body Attorney Jill Hasty, orientation commenced on Saturday, August 26, and ended on Friday, September 1, with the traditional "Choctaw Day" on which freshmen were required to dress as Indian maids and braves and stand to be judged for best costume on the patio at 10:00 am.

Other events scheduled during Freshman orientation included a reception at the Nobles' home, visits to several Jackson/Clinton area churches, a water balloon/shaving cream fight in the "valley," the infamous Freshman Talent Show, and the Clash of the Classes where the freshmen were given an opportunity to come together as a group and face all those upperclassmen who had been giving them a hard time all week.

On Thursday, September 7, the Freshman Awards Banquet was held in the Hall of Fame Room of the Student Center to recognize those freshmen and orientation leaders who had exhibited the best spirit during the week. Much effort and hard work went into the planning and execution of Freshman Orientation week, both on the part of Jill and her orientation leaders, as well as the freshman guys and girls who entered into it with such a spirit of cooperation and fun.

Registration and General Rush

Freshman Orientation wasn't the only thing going on during that first week. Freshman and transfer registration was held on Tuesday, August 29, in the A.E. Wood Collesium, upperclassmen registration on August 30. Despite long lines, hot weather, closed classes, and a shortage of chapel seats, the event was made as painless as possible for the students. The set-up was well organized, and faculty advisors were on hand at numerous stations along the "class card route" to aid students who had to rearrange their schedules around class closings. For many students, registration provided the first opportunity to see old friends and catch up on the summer's events.

General Rush was held on August 29, at 7:30 pm in the Hall of Fame Room. The members of Kissimee, Laguna, Nenamoosha, and Swannanoa turned out in full force to give the freshmen girls their first taste of the special tribes. The girls were also introduced to the Intertribal Council and acquainted with the requirements for rush.

Coke Parties

All the girls who wish to rush one of the social tribes must attend each of the four tribes' coke parties. This year the coke parties were held on Thursday, August 31 from 2:00 to 4:00 pm. The Nenamoosha coke party took place in the Hederman-Gunter Dorm, Kissimee's in Mary Nelson lobby. Swannanoa and Laguna shared the lobbies of Latimer-Webb Dorm. Much time and effort was put forth on the part of the tribes to decorate their respective lobbies with tribe mascots, photos, and signs to create a pleasant, colorful setting for the rushing girls. The parties gave the freshman girls and the tribe members a chance to meet on an individual basis, thus helping the rushees decide where they would fit in best.

Rush Skits

Who We Are

From their very first day on campus, freshman girls are bombarded with posters, signs, and favors from the four women's social tribes. They are faced with one of the first major decisions of their college years — "Do I want to rush or not?" After the initial decision to rush is made, an even more difficult choice must be made -"Which tribe would be best for me?" To help the girls in this decision-making process the tribes present rush skits. These "skits" are actually major productions into which tribe members pour tremendous amounts of time and energy. The purpose of putting on skits is to show the girls what each tribe is about, as well as to be fun and entertaining.

This year Laguna started off the rush skits on September 7 with "We're Taking The World by Storm." Written and directed by rush chairman Stephanie Speights, this skit pointed out the fact that although college life may not always fit every girls' dream of the perfect life, there is a place for everyone.

Nenamoosha presented their version of The Wizard of Oz on September 11. Just as the things that Dorothy, the Scarecrow, the Tinman and the Lion searched for were inside them all along, so do the girls going through rush have the knowledge of which tribe is best for them. All they have to do is look deep inside themselves and find the answer. The skit was written and directed by rush chairman Tracey McMillan.

Swannanoa presented "The Magic in You" on September 12. Written by former ST beau Jeff Blackwell and directed by rush chairman Ruth Page, the skit attempted to show that trying to be like someone else, no matter how "with it" that person appears to be, can never lead to true happiness. The best way to decide which tribe to rush is to find the one in which you can feel free to be yourself.

Kissimee wound up the week of rush skits on September 14 with their salute to women "Through the Years..." The skit presented "KT Women" of the fifties, sixties, seventies, and, of course, the professional, take-charge woman of the eighties. The skit was written and directed by rush chairman Holly Bridges.

Pep Rallies

The Ones To Watch

Thursday. 9:00 p.m.

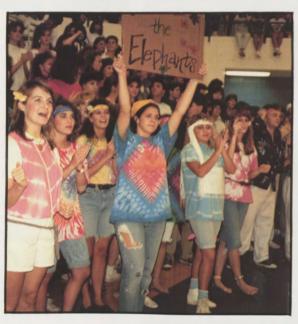

What's that awful noise coming from Alumni? It's the Pep Rally, of course, a definite MC tradition.

Weekly, all of the service clubs and social tribes arrive at the delapidated old gym to bring it new life. They show up in anything from jerseys to garbage bags to forks. Though each group is unique, they all come for the same purpose, to support the Choctaws. They listen to inspiring speeches from the football players and coaches and watch the national award-winning cheerleaders. Most of all, however, they YELL! — all in hopes of winning the coveted spirit stick.

So, if you're walking around the track one Thursday night and hear a big commotion, don't get upset. It's not the end of the world; it's just some MC students showing their Choctaw pride.

I Love America Day

The ninth annual I Love America Day was held on October 2, 1989. This celebration of our national pride is a well-established tradition at MC, and this year the event included a day full of scheduled activities, beginning with chapel speaker General Donald L. Scott. Then patriotic students, many sporting our national colors, assembled in the quad for an All-American picnic complete with corn-on-the-cob and patriotic music performed by MC students and student groups. An added activity in this year's I Love America Day was the Talent Show. Held at 7:00 pm in Swor Auditorium, this show gave willing students a chance to show off their talents, patriotism, and senses of humor. A 9:30 pm fireworks display capped off the day's events.

In the words of George Bush, "This celebration embodies the values that made America work and keep it working today."

Carnival O' Fun

Homecoming 1989

The 1989 homecoming committee headed by chairperson Leah Williams made a concertive effort to encourage greater student participation in and enthusiasm for homecoming events. The theme for homecoming this year was "Carnival of Magic," so the homecoming committee organized an actual carnival for the student body.

This "Carnival O' Fun" took place in the quad on Thursday, October 12, from 4:00 to 7:00 pm. Social tribes and service clubs and other campus organizations were invited to set up money-making booths at the carnival. Some of the biggest crowd-drawers were NT's date auction, KT's egg drop, SBA's pie throwing booth, and Delta Sigma Pi's dunking booth. The carnival was a big success and set the stage for the many other homecoming activities to follow.

Homecoming Follies

One of the newest yet thriving homecoming traditions here at MC is the student organized and sponsored presentation of Homecoming Follies. This year's Follies presentation was held on Friday, October 13 at 7:30 in Swor Auditorium. Six of the seven social organizations on campus presented ten-minute skits on the theme "Carnival of Magic." These skits were judged on creativity, choreography, and use of music; first and second places were awarded. Follies co-chairpersons Jay Cook and Angela Wallace served as host and hostess for took first place, with Laguna and Rotaract tying for second place. Laguna's skit presented the story of an unhappy clown looking for love, and Rotaract performed a modern version of the classic tale Pinocchio.

The other skits included Circle K's "Carnival Club," which featured a series of acts auditioning for a nightclub owner; KT's "Magic," the highlight of which was a glow-in-the-dark hands and feet show; and NT's "Mardi Gras" in which the ladies of Nenamoosha portrayed MC and Livingston football players. Angie Gilstrap, Belinda Austin, and Stacy Dukes performed between skits, along with Jay Cook and Angela Wallace.

Homecoming Day

No Rain on this Parade

Homecoming at MC is a time of renewing old friend-ships and reviving old memories — a time for alumni to catch up on years lost between them. Class reunions and departmental receptions fill the homecoming day schedule from early in the morning until the parade starts in the afternoon.

The weather couldn't have been better for the 1989 Homecoming Parade. A festive atmosphere pervaded the campus — the sounds of a marching band, excited children, and the joyous chatter of old friends reunited. Alumni and students gathered along College Street to watch the procession.

First place honors went to the women of Laguna Social Tribe for their float "Take 'Em for a Spin, Chocs." Second place went to the junior class for their float "Carnival Cruise Line," and Nenamoosha took third with a Clinton Fire Department fire engine overflowing with red-hot Nenamoosha spirit.

Time-Sharing

There just don't seem to be enough hours in the day. Classes, clubs, sports, events, and jobs are so demanding of our time that we sometimes lose sight of what is really important — the people with whom we are sharing our college experience. MC is truly rich in exceptional people — students, staff, faculty, and administration alike — who, working with and for each other, are Mississippi College.

PEOPLE

President

Dr. Lewis Nobles

For the past two decades, Mississippi College has been under the leadership of one of the most respected and successful college presidents in the nation, Dr. Lewis Nobles. Dr. Nobles came to MC in 1968 from the University of Mississippi where he was Dean of the School of Pharmacy. Since their arrival here, Dr. Nobles and his wife Joy have proved to be invaluable assets to MC, always striving with enthusiasm and undying devotion for the betterment of the college. Dr. Nobles is friendly and extremely accessible to students as well as faculty members, willing to listen to the small concerns and needs of individual groups and students despite his enormous responsibilities in the major decisions and actions of the college. He is a truly admired and respected man, among both his peers and the students, staff, and faculty of Mississippi College.

Our Times

It is true that there is a time for all things, though life at MC can sometimes make us question this age-old truth. Things can become so hectic at times that we begin to feel swallowed by all that we have to get done. That's when it's time to put work aside and go to a movie with a friend, or just watch TV or grab a bite to eat in the cafeteria. When all is said and done, the times we share with friends will become the memories from our MC years which we will most cherish.

Faces of MC

The following is just a small sample of the many friendly faces here at MC.

In the Dorm

It was the best of times. It was the worst of times.

ABOVE: "Could you guys hold it down?" Belinda Huffman tries to hear a phone conversation over some noisy neighbors.

BELOW: Mr. Spider — Ratliff's Halloween decoration.

Across Campus

Rushing to make it to class on time or just socializing along "the wall," across the MC campus you're sure to meet and chat with a friend or two.

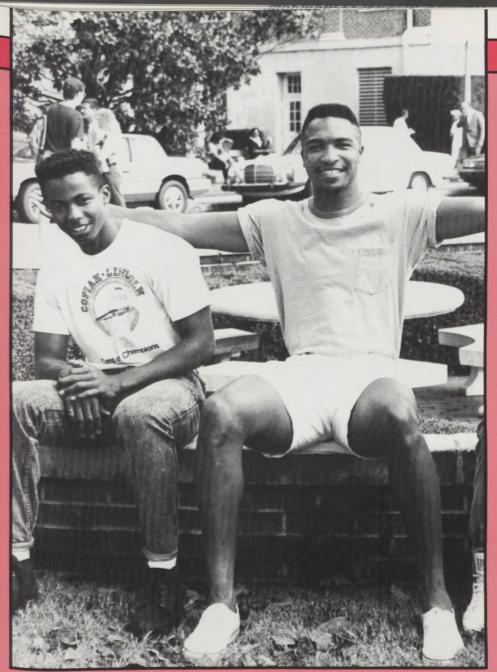

TOP CENTER: Stephanie Speights and Anne Brannon share a laugh while walking to class.

BELOW: The only way to make it through a long Tuesday-Thursday class, according to Karen Kelley, is to take along a little light refresh-

In Chapel

Though going to chapel every Monday and Wednesday for five semesters tends to get old at times, chapel at MC is a useful and enriching tradition. Not only are students kept abreast of current happenings and campus-wide activities, but also special groups and accomplishments are recognized before a large number of the student body. And, of course, there are the speakers, some better than others, who speak to the students on various subjects and who often have things to say that are very relevant to college life and problems facing college students. Among the favorite speakers this year were Gloria Gather, author and member of the famous Bill Gaither Trio; Dr. Ken Cooper, credited with starting the "fitness craze;" and, as always Dr. Chester Swor.

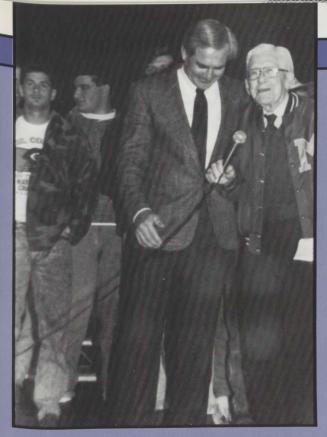

One of the most memorable chapels of the year was on Wednesday, December 13, when the national championship Choctaw football team was recognized. The football players were introduced individually to the student body; the national champion cheerleaders performed a spectacular routine; Head Coach John Williams presented the student body with the National Championship trophy; and SBA President Sonny Gaston made good on a claim made to Doc Quick early in the semester: "If the Chocs win the national championship, I'll let them cut my hair in chapel."

TOP: Coach Williams' presentation of the championship trophy to Doc Quick and the student body is an emotional moment for Doc.

BELOW: "Isn't chapel supposed to be over at 10:30?" Everyone enjoyed the special chapel program, even though it did last almost a full hour.

Sonny loses his Hair

Darryl Longabaugh prepares Sonny for his official Choctaw scalping.

Lock by lock, snip by merciless snip, our courageous and trueto-his-word leader loses his hair to the unrelenting Choctaws.

Cafeteria

In the MC Cafeteria one is sure to find a showcase of fine dining expressions.

RIGHT: Nathan Morris sticks his tongue out at his lunch. (He says it makes it taste better.)

BELOW: Robert Mullins, Pam McKinnon, Ellen McCain, and Amy Dabbs have four completely different fine dining expressions.

RIGHT: Michael Hess and Leah Williams believe they have found one of the fine French recipes used by the cafeteria.

LC/MC

On January 17, fifteen MC students left the Jackson Municipal Airport on the adventure of a lifetime — a semester of study in London, England. The long journey (which began with a two and a half hour delay in Jackson) was tiring, but when the students arrived at the St. Margaret's Hotel in Russell Square sometime in the morning on January 18 (London time), they set out on their first day of exploring London. One of the first activities for the students was the "Bus and Tube Rally," a scavenger hunt designed to teach them their way around the city. The students studied the history of science and plants and civilization under MC professor Dr. Ted Snazelle; literature under LC professor Dr. Connie Doublas; and art, political science and drama under British lecturers. The students also stayed in the home of a British family for three weeks. For spring break the students were treated to a coach tour of Britain, including Wales and Scotland. The experience was an invaluable one to the students and the LC/MC professors, who learned the truth in 1989 LC/MC professor George Pittman's words, "It just doesn't get any better than this."

NOTE: For complete group picture of LC/MC 1990 see page 99

TOP: Matthew Bradford, Mitzi Walker, Chris Griffin, Kimberly Gulledge, and Kelly Meacham stand on Westminster Bridge in view of Big Ben and the Houses of Parliament.

BOTTOM RIGHT: "Pooh" Wilson and Missy Albritton board a coach from the St. Margaret's that will take them on a tour of London and Greenwich.

Prime Time

College life offers many personal challenges to each student — from the quest for academic excellence to participating in a winning sports team to serving others in student government capacities. MC students meet these challenges with enthusiasm and determination, some with such a high level of success that they attract the attention of their peers and the faculty, who recognize them with special honors. This section is devoted to these hardworking students.

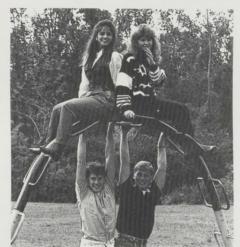

Honors

Miss Mississippi College — Jill Hasty

Jill Kristina Hasty, an elementary education major from Huntsville, AL, was selected by the student body at large as Miss Mississippi College 1989-90. Jill has been actively involved in many facets of campus life during her four years at MC. She has been a member of the national champion varsity cheerleading squad all four years, served as junior class vice-president, and this year served as Student Body Association Attorney. She has also served as a Civitan sweetheart for the past four years, which she considers to be the greatest honor that she has received during her time at MC.

Jill was elected as freshman, sophomore and junior class favorite; served as a member of the Baptist Student Union Freshman Council, was elected sophomore and junior class homecoming maid, and this year was elected Homecoming Queen. ### Mr. Mississippi College — Alan Wright

Alan Wright, an English major from Pascagoula, MS, was selected by the student body to represent them as Mr. Mississippi College 1989-90. During his four years at MC, Alan has made a great impact on the lives of many people. He has been an active member of Civitan all four years, serving the club as spirit chairman during his sophomore year and as a representative on the Interservice Executive Council and vice-president for projects during his junior year. He has also been a strong force in the Baptist Student Union since his freshman year when he served on the Freshman Council. He later served as ministries chairman and this year holds the office of president of BSU.

The rewards Alan has received from his work with the BSU he considers to be second only to those he has received in his role as Swannanoa beau. Alan was selected by ST to be their beau his freshman year, and he considers that to be the greatest college honor he has received.

Alan was selected class favorite his sophomore, junior and senior years, and in addition to being chosen Mr. MC, was elected as one of the four MC beaus this year. An avid sports fan and play goer, Alan enjoys supporting the Chocs at football games, basketball games, and pep rallies and keeping up with the activities and productions of the drama department here at school. Alan is an easy person to talk to and has a great sense of humor. One of his most appealing qualities is his ability to take life in stride. He adheres to the good advice given in Ecclesiastes 12:12 — "Son, there is something else to watch out for. There is no end to the writing of books and too much study will wear you out."

"I would like to be remembered as just one of the guys, who could, every now and then. make somebody laugh, or at least chuckle.'

Jennifer Crawford

Jennifer Crawford, an elementary education major from Batesville, MS, has been a member of Nenamoosha Social Tribe for four years, serving as historian her sophomore and junior years and as president her junior year. Jennifer has also been a member of Baptist Young Women for four years in which she was elected vice-president her sophomore year and president for the past two years. She served on the Women's Affairs Board for two years — vice-chairman her junior year and chairman her senior year. She has also been active in the Baptist Student Union, as a member of the Freshman Council and later of the Executive Council. She is a member of Mortar Board, Omicron Delta Kappa, and Kappa Delta Pi, which she has lead as president for the past two years. Jennifer was selected as a member of Who's Who Among American Colleges and Universities and is listed in the Outstanding College Students of America. She served Mississippi College for three years as a student recruiter and for two years as a member of the Teacher Education Committee.

Robert Patrick Jones, a computer science major from Jackson, MS, has been a member of Civitan for four years, and during these years has held the offices of treasurer and rush chairman. He is a member of Alpha Lambda Delta and was elected reporter of this club his freshman year. He was also elected freshman and sophomore class president and was selected as the recipient of the T.M. Hederman Scholarship Award and of the Strange Memorial Scholarship. Robby is a member of Alpha Chi, Mortar Board, Omicron Delta Kappa, Mathematical Association of America, and the Association for Computer Machinists. He served for two years in the Mississippi College Senate and participated in the LC/MC Overseas Program in 1989. This year he represented Civitan on the Interservice Executive Council, and completed his fourth season on the MC Soccer team.

Time In

To be active forces on campus, student organizations must have the dedicated support of their members. When the decision is made by a student to join a campus organization, he or she is, in effect, agreeing to give of his or her time and energy to the goals of the club and the other members. However, most students find the time to have been well spent. In devoting time to a team of people who are all working toward the same goals, one reaps many benefits, not the least of which are the many friendships that are formed.

ORGAN-IZATIONS

Student Body Association

SBA President: Sonny Gaston

SBA Vice-president: Todd Cranford

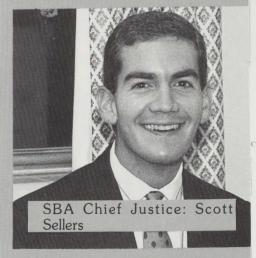

THE STUDENT BODY ASSOCI-ATION, composed of all students, annually elects a student body president and other officers to promote student welfare, to perpetuate college customs and traditions, and to train MC's leaders in the principles of democratic government preparing for future citizenship. These officers, in cooperation with the Student Senate, cooperate with the administration in promoting well ordered conduct among students and enforcing the regulations of the college, as well as in improving conditions for the students.

The Student Body Association functions through these three branches: Executive, Judicial, and Legislative. The eight major officers minus the Chief Justice compose the Executive Branch. The Legislative Branch is made up of the Student Senate, and the Judicial Branch is composed of the Chief Justice and the Judicial Council, which has the responsibility for enforcing standards and good citizenship among all students attending the college, as well as for hearing appeals from the Men's and Women's Affairs Boards.

SBA Student Senate

The Student Senate comprises the Legislative Branch of the Student Body Association Government. The Senate representatives are nominated by a Senate Selection Committee and act in the interests of the student by presenting bills that are passed in session to the administration in the form of recommendations.

It's 6:05 on an MC Monday night, time for the weekly BSU gathering. The Gathering is not only a time for spiritual enrichment and growth, but it is also a time for fun and fellowship with friends. It gives MC students a chance to put aside the worries of the week for an hour or so and share a relaxing time of song, prayer, and devotion.

BSU is a student-wide organization open to all who wish to participate. Besides the weekly Gathering, BSU sponsors several local ministries which include Action Teams, Kid's Club, and Children's Village. BSU is also extremely active in missions, sending special mission groups from MC to various places in the US and other countries and supporting summer missions as well.

A lot of hard work and planning go into all that BSU does - from the weekly gathering to sending summer missionaries. The people responsible for getting it all done constitute the BSU Executive Crew. They are: (pictured above left to right): Chris Cochran — action teams, Trey Jones - commuter outreach, Charis Quinnelly - publicity, Don Gann — BSU director, Anthony Guy — special outreach, Stacey Norris - special events, Kara Bowling — missions, Kathy Nichols — Priority representative, Jay Bullen — campus outreach, Stephanie Speights - programs, Alan Wright - president. ## Circle K

Building on Years of Service

... The Circle K Club is not a social fraternity; it is in every sense of the word a service organization and a character building group whose members are banded together voluntarily to render service to the campus and the community. The Circle K motto, like the motto of the Kiwanis, is "We Build." — 1960 Tribesman.

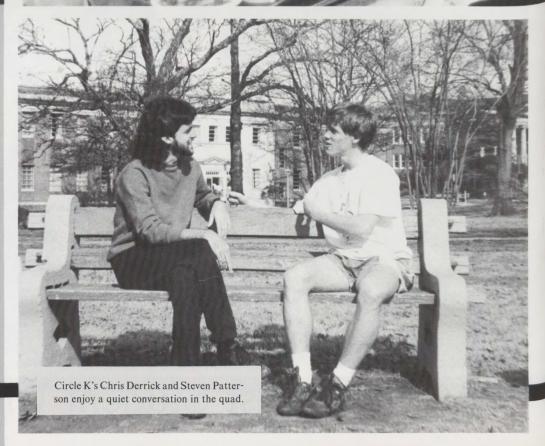

Circle K... seeks to guide its members toward responsible citizenship as they take their places in society. In seeking to serve the students, the college, and the community, this club has as its motto, "We Build." This motto incorporates the ideas that sincere service is Christian in principle and develops character in young men... Membership is limited and the basis for selection centers around leadership potentialities, sincerity, dedication, and sound judgement. — 1965 Tribesman.

The Circle K motto "We Build" incorporates sincere Christian service and character development in each of its members. Circle K International is a service organization for college men which develops future leaders and citizens whose philosophy is founded on freedom, initiative, the American and Canadian heritage, and unselfish service to others. — 1970 Tribesman.

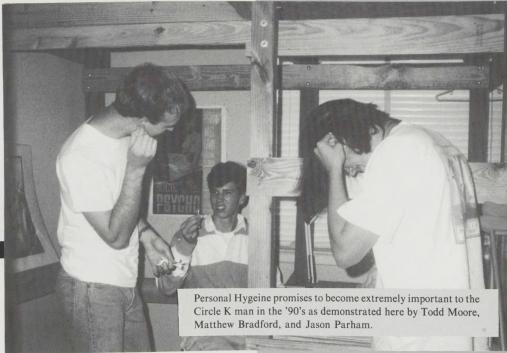

Circle K is a character-building and service organization of college men. It carries out its theme of service by performing many projects of goodwill . . . All in all Circle K gave an example of what a service club is all about. — 1975 Tribesman.

Circle K is a service and social organization which helps promote leadership and also create a better campus and community. — 1980 Tribesman. The goals of Circle K consist of service to the community and campus as a foundation of brotherhood and character... Circle K is always first on the spot to serve God and man. — 1985 Tribesman

Kissimee Tribe was organized in 1952, the first girls' social club on campus. The adopted colors are pink and silver, and the tribe's flower is the pink carnation. The elephant is the official KT mascot, and Kissimee has its own Maltese Cross, symbolizing the ideals of the tribe.

But Kissimee contains so much more than these things — a special, creative spirit, unique to this tribe that can be seen in every Tuesday 5:00 meeting, every swap, and every event in the list of KT activities. Kissimee is a place for girls who want to be themselves, and in KT those girls have found a warm circle of friends. Sisterhood is what Kissimee is all about. — Mary Jane Burton, pledge president.

Laguna

The goals of Laguna Social Tribe are quite simple. First of all, the organization promotes student involvement by participating in campus activities. Laguna also strives to provide helpful services to the community. Visits to the children's ward and frequent food donations are just some of the services performed by the tribe. Most importantly, LT encourages the development of Christian ideals, inner beauty, and individual character. These qualities provide the necessary foundation on which the sisterhood of Laguna is built.

The Collegian

The Mississippi College Collegian began a new era in 1989 with the introduction of the journalism major and minor at MC. Headed by journalism instructor, Mr. Clay Scott, the new program turned the MC newspaper in a different, more professional direction. The staff, under editor Elizabeth Lee, produced six regular editions plus one four-page special edition in the fall of '89, and in the spring of '90 they turned out seven regular edition papers. The staff consists of eight full-time members plus a host of guest writers, including Journalism 101 and 102 students who are required to write for the paper.

Hopes for the paper's future are high. With the new computer equipment donated this year to the Collegian, it may be possible in the near future for the Collegian to become a bi-weekly or even weekly publication. Says Clay Scott of his first year as sponsor of the Collegian, "I am pleased with the progress of the Collegian and with the support that both the college and the community of Clinton have given us in making it a first-class publication."

Show Time

As with sports and organization, participating in fine arts — whether it's in a musical group like Priority or the Naturals or in a dramatic group like Cross Section — requires a lot of time and dedication. The fine arts at MC stand alone in that they not only allow students to use their talents for the enrichment of others, but also to express their individuality. At show time when the curtain is pulled, Mississippi College is well represented.

FINE ARTS

Art at Its Finest

The 1989-90 school year was a phenomenally successful one for the MC Art Department. Department head Dr. Sam Gore had an extremely impressive year, receiving several commissions for sculptures and paintings including commissions from the MS Baptist Medical Center and the MS Chemical Corporation. The MS Baptist Medical Center commissioned "The Nurse," a sculpture dedicated to the graduates of the MS Baptist-Gilfoy School of Nursing. "The Nurse" now stands in the public area of the MS Baptist Medical Center. The MS Chemical Corporation commissioned "The Farmer" which will be donated to the MS Agriculture and Forestry Museum. Dr. Gore also received commissions for series of paintings for Allstate Insurance Company and the lackson Veterans Museum.

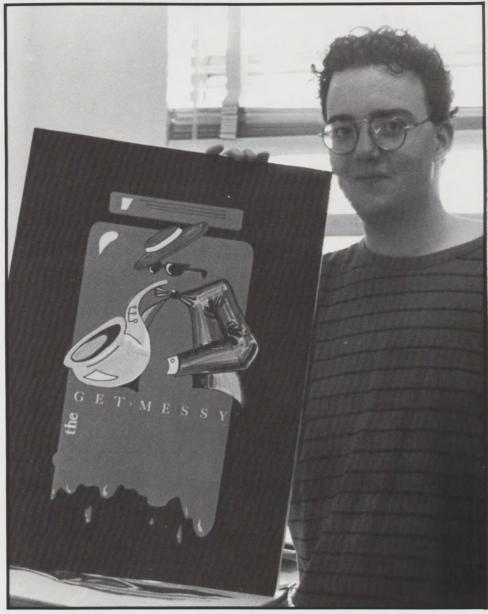

Mike Merck, a senior graphic design major, won the poster/logo contest sponsored by the Jackson Arts Alliance. Mike's design will be the official logo for the 1990 Jackson Jubilee Jam Festival and will be featured on T- shirts, posters, and other items.

Up and coming watercolorist Wyatt Waters was a part-time faculty member in the Art Department this year. Waters is an MC graduate and is attaining national recognition for his work.

Mr. Steve Cook lead the computerization surge in the Art Department. Both the fields of graphic design and interior design are moving toward computerization.

One of the highlights of the year for the department was the Katherine Speed Ettl Sculpture Exhibition held november 6-15 in the Leland Speed Library. Fifty-three sculptures were exhibited, and many of those pieces were donated to the college and remain on display on campus.

Marching for Victory

MC Marching Band

The Choctaw Band under the direction of Dr. John Hanberry made tremendous strides during the 1989-90 school year. Though never lacking in quality, the band had in previous years been wanning in number. The growing trend began in 1988, and this year the band was greatly increased in number and strength. Strong half-time performances generated several standing ovations from football crowds in the fall, and the frequent patio shows were praised as excellent. Dr. Hanberry and his band members worked hard to produce a band that represented Mississippi College in a strong and fine manner.

Concert Choir

The Mississippi College Choir has a longestablished tradition of excellence. The choir, under the direction of Dr. Richard Joiner, is a select tour choir of seventy voices. The choir performs a wide variety of choral literature from the master works to spirituals. The group has performed before both the Mississippi Chapter of the American Choral Directors Association and the Mississippi Baptist Church Music Conference. The choir toured for one day in the fall of 1989, and for one week in the spring of 1990. The spring presentation this year was The Chichester Psalms by Bernstein and the Symphony of Psalms by Stravinsky with the New Orleans Symphony Orchestra.

The Naturals

The Naturals is a contemporary music and dance group. The Naturals were recreated in 1987 under the direction of Eva Hart, and for the three school years since that time have grown in popularity and strength. The group performs frequently at high schools, civic clubs, conventions, church banquets, and other events throughout the state. The group is open to all majors and performs a wide variety of music forms from contemporary pop to Christian music.

Priority

Priority is a Baptist Student Union sponsored musical group. The purpose of Priority is to share Christ through music. The group averages around twenty performances per semester, and performs in churches, high schools and youth activities throughout Mississippi and in several other southern states. Though their music appeals to all age groups, it is especially designed to reach out to young people to lead them to Christ and to strengthen their Christian walks.

Charley's Aunt

The Mississippi College Communication Department presented Brandon Thomas's classic romantic comedy Charley's Aunt on November 14-19. The play, set in the early twentieth century, is about love and the complications of courtship in the prim and proper social circles of an Ivy League university town. The twist is the impersonation of the rich widow Donna D'Alvadorez by the lovesick and thus prone to alcohol Lord Fancort Babberly to enable his friends Charley Wykeham and jack Chesney to pursue their courtships with the lovely Amy Spettigue and Kitty Verdum under the guise of being properly chaperoned. The plan works quite smoothly until the real Donna D'Alvadorez shows up accompanied by the object of Lord Babberly's affection. The MC presentation of Charley's Aunt was a tremendous success, pleasing the audience every night of the performance week. It was said by many that this was one of the finest productions to come out of the department in recent history.

TOP: Charley (Greg Jones) and Jack (Kevin Palmer) listen with interest as champagne-stealing Babberly (Mark McNeil) tells about having to play the part of a woman in his acting class.

Cross Section

Cross Section is a dramatic team sponsored by the Baptist Student Union and directed by Anne Sullivan. The group performs for church and school audiences, attempting to share Christ through drama and to show the effects that Christianity can have on contemporary problems and attitudes. This year Charles Loflin and David Price served as student directors to the group.

The Lion in Winter

Graduate student Mark McNeil directed the joint production of the MC Communication and English Departments' presentation of James Goldman's classic play The Lion in Winter. The historic comedy is set in 1183, but the MC production presented the characters in modern-day dress, and made the set symbolic of a chess game, as the characters in the play, though related, played the "game" of life to win, even if it means using those they are supposed to love.

Miss MC 1990

On February 16,1990, the Miss Mississippi College Pageant was held in the Chester E. Swor Auditorium. Nine Talented and beautiful girls vied for the title and the honor of representing MC in the Miss Mississippi Pageant to be held later in the year in Vicksburg.

The pageant, directed by Greg Jones, was extremely well-produced. The gorgeous set designed and constructed by Mark McNeil and Amy Barrett, depicting an antebellum home, added to the overwhelming success of the pageant as a crowd-pleaser.

Stacy Dukes, a Senior English major from Clinton, was crowned Miss MC. The runners up were: third alternate — Christy Dabbs; second alternate — Angela Wallace; first alternate — Shauna Moody.

Time Out

Everyone enjoys taking time out from routine study and work to go to "the game" and cheer on the Chocs (or Lady Chocs). For the athletes, however, sports are a part of that routine work. There is much more involved than just the excitement of "the game." Hours of grueling and glamourless practice are put in to produce the end result — a team ready to compete for its Choctaw fans. This year those fans got more than their usual share of excitement from the championship sports teams MC produced.

SPORTS

A Disappointing End

The Choctaws were predicted to finish second in the Gulf South Conference in the pre-season picks. However, the Chocs began the season with a loss to McNeese State, but were able to regroup and roll over their next three opponents, the University of North Alabama, Southeast Missouri University, and the University of Tennessee Martin. The winning streak ended when the Chocs ran up against the toughest team in the GSC and one of the toughest in all of Division II - the Jacksonville State Gamecocks. Against All Odds Number One ranked and undefeated Texas A&I was highly favored to send the Chocs on a sad journey back to Clinton, but the Mississippi boys in blue stunned the football world with a 34-19 upset.

Burning with desire and fired up with enthusiasm, the Choctaws traveled to snowy and freezing St. Cloud University of Minnesota. Most Mississippi College fans sat by their radios as the Choctaw offense exploded for 358 yards pass-

Choctaw Cheerleaders

Always on Top

The Mississippi College Choctaw Cheerleaders routinely distinguish themselves as one of the top cheer squads in the country. The 1989 cheerleaders participated in the nationally televised National Collegiate Cheerleading Championship in San Antonio, TX in April. This marked MC's fourth appearance in the national competition in as many years. The 1987 squad won Mississippi College's first national title, and the 1989 team reclaimed the National Championship for MC by performing a flawless routine that consisted of partner stunts, cheers, chants, tumbling, pyramids, and sport acrobatics. The group is also consistently at the top of other various clinics and competitions they attend around the country.

Choctaw Basketball

An Incredible Start

Amidst all the excitement of the football team's history-making extended season, Head Coach Mike Jones basketball Chocs were busy making history of their own. The basketball Chocs began preparing for the season in mid-October, and early on it was apparent that the grueling sixteen hours of practice per week was going to pay off big. The Chocs were chosen second in the Gulf South Conference in the pre-season picks, and two starters, Thomas Matthews and Willie

Thomas were named preseason All Conference. Despite this recognition, the Chocs had been underestimated. The team got off to an incredible 13-1 start, winning the Denominational Tournament along the way. By mid-January, the Chocs were not only first in the GSC, but were also ranked fifth in the nation in Division II — the first time ever for an MC basketball team — and were showing no signs of slowing down.

MC Soccer 1989

Nineteen-eighty-nine was a red-letter year for MC sports - and not just for the football and basketball teams. The MC Soccer team also pulled off an amazing season — the best ever in MC's relatively short soccer history. The Chocs, under the leadership of Coach Husein Mofidi and Director/ Manager Thomas Bobo, finished regular season play with a 10-4-1 record, and then went on to host the South East Conference Soccer Tournament on November 17 and 18. The Chocs won their first game of the tournament 2-1 over Auburn, but fell to the University of Kentucky 2-3 in University of Kentucky 2-3 in the second. The Chocs the second to win over a bounced back to win over a tough LSU team 2-0, but were tough LSU team 2-0, but were eliminated from the tournation the semi-finals 1-2 to ment in the semi-finals 1-2 to the University of Tennessee, the University of Tennessee, finishing third in the tournations.

The accomplishments of this dedicated team are remarkable considering the obstacles they overcame to go stacles they overcame to as far. First, the Soccer team so far. First, the soccer team and therefore receives team, and therefore receives only a fraction of the funding and support from the school that varsity teams enjoy. Also, the Chocs not only played Division I teams in post-season action, but also played them throughout the season. MC fans did not show up in good or even moderate numbers to watch the Chocs in the SEC tournament, and even fewer fans turned out for the Chocs' regular season games. The 1989 team members hope that their success will give MC Soccer teams in future years more of the respect and support that they so well deserve.

A Note In Closing

The 1989-90 school year was an outstanding one for Mississippi College. We, the Tribesman staff, sincerely hope that you will find our record of this memorable year adequate and entertaining. Putting together a book of this size in just six months is not an easy task for a handful of people, so there are inevitably things that were either accidentally overlooked or could not be included because of deadline scheduling — for these we apologize.

This year has been, for the most part, a pleasantly uncomplicated one for the Tribesman. There was, in almost everyone we dealt with, a wonderful spirit of cooperation and helpfulness. One of the most encouraging moments of the year for me as editor was when Coach Mike Jones called me early in October to ask me what he could do to help us make the basketball section better. Almost everyone took an active interest in the yearbook this year, seeing to it that we had everything we needed to make the coverage of his/her group, team, event, etc. the best that it could possibly be.

So many people have contributed in big and small ways to the successful completion of this book that it is impossible to thank each one here. However, I would like to thank the following people without whom the yearbook would not be what it is: Mrs. Martha Hammond, our sponsor - for always being there with encouragement and support, always willing to take care of any problem I presented to her; Mr. Steve Cook for always being there with sound advice in times of crisis and for lifting my spirits with words of encouragement and appreciation; Dr. Bill Ellis, chairman of the Publication Council — for taking care of the big matters and always backing us up when we needed it; Dr. Nobles — for his generous concern for the needs of the Tribesman; Dr. Van Quick, along with Dr. Nobles, for obtaining the money for the extra color pages in the book; Reverend Robert Wall - for your patience and help with photographs for the sports section when we were in a bind; Mr. Don Gaddis and all of Southern States Images — for always being willing to help us out either by taking pictures for us or by making prints for us in a day's notice, always anxious to help us meet our deadlines; Mr. Norman Gough, Mrs. Louise Hudson, and Susan Tyler in the public relations office for always helping us out in any way they could; and Mary Lane Reed — for giving me a home away from home when I needed one so that we could meet deadlines over the holidays.

Perhaps one of the most remarkable things to me about this year working on the Tribesman was that I was not working alone. For the first time in the past several years, the Tribesman staff was actually a staff — more than just one or two people doing all the work themselves. I'd like to thank the entire staff for doing their part to produce this book: Tina Barlow, Rosana Bean, Melissa Bruner, Holly Hardin, Tracy Smith, Tonya Williams, and Hope Yawn — for endless hours of proofreading and indexing, writing captions and copy, making calls and gathering information. Special thanks go to business manager Denny Hydrick who took care of the business matters all year long and who spent so many tiresome hours working on the ads and index. Sports editor Stephen Pater, the creative force behind much of the design of the book, not only designed the sports section and the division pages, but also developed the cover design. I extend my deepest gratitude to Stephen for sticking it out - even till the 3:00 and 4:00 a.m. extremes. I could not have finished the book without him. Darkroom manager Mike Merck developed and printed virtually every black and white photo in the book, and drew the art work on the cover in a few hours' notice. I thank him for his many hours of hard work. Photography editor Patti Brown took all but a minute number of snapshots in the book and many of the club and sports pictures as well, setting up all the times and dates for making the pictures herself. I am grateful not only for all of Patti's work, but also for the friendship I have found in her this year.

Finally, I'd like to thank some people, who though they were not officially involved with the yearbook at all, were instrumental to my being able to get it all done: my parents — for believing in me and supporting me throughout the year; Mary Moore Reed, my roommate and best friend — for putting up with my coming in at 3:00 a.m. for weeks at a time and for listening to all my complaints; and Wally Bell — for always being there with me, doing anything he could to make the crises seem less critical and the successes more monumental, and for always making sure, even when it seemed like everyone else had let me down, that I never felt like I was in this alone.

This book is about the people and events that shaped Mississippi College in 1989-90, and in it, the Tribesman staff strove to represent those people and events adequately and accurately. Our success can only be measured in terms of your response. We hope you like it
